REVIEW OF THE NAECI FOR 2022 AND BEYOND

The parties met again today via Zoom to continue to review the NAECI for 2022 and beyond.

During the course of extensive discussions, constructive progress was made by both sides. In conclusion, it was jointly agreed that the Employers would confirm their proposals in writing to the Trades Unions. This correspondence will be reported to the NECC Shop Stewards' Forum on the 4th August 2021.
