REVIEW OF THE NAECI 2021

The Employers and Trades Unions party to the NAECI held the second of two meetings this week to discuss a review of NAECI 2021.

Following in depth discussions, it was apparent that no progress could be made towards reaching a mutual understanding.

In finality the Employers agreed to confirm their position in writing to the Trades Unions in order to assist in reporting back to the NECC and further to the Shop Stewards Forum.

It was recognised that these would not be face to face meetings and the employers undertook to encourage their members to assist wherever possible in facilitating the meetings which would be at the end of the day.

The dates will be confirmed to the Employers by the NECC Secretary in due course.
